Professional Standards

1. A member must always act with due regard to the laws, customs and practices of the country in which he/she works.
2. A member shall practice only within the limits of his/her professional training and competency. If necessary, decline treatment and refer to an appropriately qualified practitioner.
3. A member shall not treat any person who to their knowledge could be suffering from any condition which they believe may be adversely affected by the treatment without the knowledge and consent of the person's doctor.
4. Membership incurs an obligation to uphold the dignity and honour of the profession, to exalt its standing and to extend its service to the public. The conduct of members shall at all times be a credit to the profession.
5. For the sole purpose of a SourceSTAR treatment, at no time shall a client be asked to remove clothing other than outer wear and shoes, or a belt and tie for reasons of comfort.
6. A member should not treat any client who presents for a SourceSTAR treatment who is incapacitated through alcohol or drug misuse.
